Part 5—Termination of appointment

Residential sales of 1 or 2 properties only	Open listing: You may terminate in writing at any time. Sole or exclusive: The client and agent can agree in writing to end the appointment early. For appointments of 60 days or more, either party can end the appointment by giving 30 days written notice, but the appointment must run for at least 60 days unless both parties agree to an earlier end date.
Open listing	You may terminate an open listing for either commercial or residential property sales at any time.
Other fixed term appointments (excluding residential property sales)	The parties may agree to a fixed term appointment of their choice. This term may be ended earlier by mutual agreement.
Continuing appointments (for example: letting, collection of rents etc)	You may terminate in writing with 30 days notice, or less if both parties agree.

Part 6—PROPERTY SALES: open listing, sole agency or exclusive agency

To the client

You may appoint an agent to sell a property or land on the basis of an open listing, or a sole agency, or exclusive agency.

The following information explains the circumstances under which you will, and won't, have to pay a commission to the agent if the property is sold during their term of appointment.

OPEN LISTING

- You appoint the agent to sell the property but you retain a right to appoint other agents on similar terms, without penalty or extra commission.
- No end date required.
- Appointment can be ended by either you or the agent at any time by giving written notice.

When you must pay the agent

- The agent is entitled to the agreed commission if the agent is the effective cause of sale.

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

SOLE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- If you appoint a new agent during an existing agent's sole agreement term and the property is sold during that term, you may have to pay:
 - A commission to each agent (two commissions)
 - Damages for breach of contract arising under the existing agent's appointment

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

EXCLUSIVE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- The client will pay the appointed agent whether this agent, any other agent, or person (including the client themselves) sells the property during the term of the appointment.
- If the client sells the property, the exclusive appointment expires and if the agent was the effective cause of sale (introduced the buyer to the property) the agent may be entitled to commission.

At the end of the sole or exclusive agency, the parties Agree Do not agree that the appointment will continue as an open listing. (Please tick whichever is relevant)

Part 6—PROPERTY SALES: open listing, sole agency or exclusive agency continued

Part 7—Commission

To the client

The commission is negotiable. It must be written as a percentage or dollar amount.

Make sure you understand when commission is payable. If you choose 'Other' and the contract does not settle, the agent may still seek commission.

To the agent

You should ensure that commission is clearly expressed and the client fully understands the likely amount and when it is payable. Refer to section 104 and 105 of the Property Occupations Act 2014.

The client and the agent agree that the commission including GST payable for the service to be performed by the agent is:

When commission is payable

For sales, including auctions, commission is payable if a contract is entered into and settlement of the contract occurs.

Other
(for specific other circumstances in which commission is payable see annexure).

Part 9—Signatures

WARNING: THE CLIENT IS ADVISED TO SEEK INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE SIGNING THIS FORM.

This form enables the client to appoint, or reappoint, a property agent, resident letting agent or property auctioneer (the 'agent') for the sale, letting/management, collection of rent, auction or purchase of real property, land or businesses. This form must be completed and given to the client before the agent performs any service for the client. Failure to do so may result in a penalty and loss of commission for the agent. If you are unclear about any aspect of this form, or the fees you will be charged, do not sign it. Seek legal advice. If you need more information about this form including what an agent needs to disclose, you can visit the Office of Fair Trading website at www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading or phone on 13 QGOV (13 74 68).
